Christmas Events and Activities 2023

Members of the Positive Mental Health Network provided the following information for your use and sharing. However, the network is not responsible for the accuracy of the contents, and you are strongly advised to book or contact the event/activity organiser directly to ensure that the event/activity is still taking place. You are also strongly advised not to arrive without booking a place, if booking is required. Christmas is believed to be a time to reconnect with friends and family while also having fun. However, it can also be a time of loneliness. We hope this information is useful, particularly for people in our communities who are socially isolated or lonely over the Christmas and holiday season.

-The five ways to wellbeing are:

- Connect – spending time developing relationships with your family, friends, colleagues, and neighbours will help boost your mental wellbeing.
- Take notice – being aware of the present moment, including your thoughts and feelings, your body, your family and friends, and the world around you will help boost your mental wellbeing.
- Be active – finding an activity that you enjoy and making it a part of your life will help boost your mental wellbeing.
- Give – even the smallest act, whether it's a smile, a thank you or a kind word, or a larger act such as volunteering will help boost your mental wellbeing.
- Keep learning – whether it's learning how to cook, about your family history, or a new language, learning new skills can give you a sense of achievement and a new confidence, and will help boost your mental wellbeing.
- Making a few positive changes will help reduce your risk of developing a mental health problem, such as stress, anxiety, and depression. This can have a significant impact on your quality of life.
